Albert H. Wiggin Gallery

January 1–January 26	Lithographs by John Copley. Lithographs from the artist's own collection purchased from him in 1946 and given to the Library as part of the Wiggin Collection. Included in this exhibition are some of Copley's portraits and landscapes, scenes of life in Italy, and satirical observations of England and the English.
January 29–February 29	Prints by Corot, Jacque, Daubigny, and Millet. In addition to showing the more famous etchers, Corot and Millet, this exhibition places emphasis on the works of the two lesser known Barbizon artists, Charles Jacque and Charles Daubigny.
March 2–April 5	Edward Penfield: Posters for Harper's. Posters in color reflecting the influence of Toulouse-Lautrec, Pierre Bonnard, and other French artists who were active at the turn of the century. Amusing glimpses of American manners, habits, and customs of the period are captured with sparkle and insight.

April 7–May 26	Toulouse-Lautrec. This exhibition marks the centennial of the artist's birth with more than forty lithographs, including some of the most famous posters. All are from the Library's own collection, one of the finest in the United States.
May 26–July 22	English Caricature and Comic Art from the Collection of Draper Hill, Jr. A reminder of the wealth of humor and talent often lost to all but the historians delving into the past. Among the many artists who have long been ignored are James Gillray, Charles Keen, and William Heath.
July 23–September 28	Paris: Prints from the Wiggin Collection. Prints revealing various aspects of a great city as seen by such artists as Charles Meryon, Felix Buhot, Auguste Lópere, Pierre Bonnard, Maurice Utrillo, and others.
October 5–November 18	Etchings and Drypoints by Alphonse Legros. Selections from the nearly complete collection of Legros prints and drawings which was formed during the early part of this century by the late Francis Bliss of London and California, and which was acquired by Albert H. Wiggin for the Boston Public Library in 1942.
November 19–December 31	Nason's New England. For more than forty years Nason has been an interpreter of the New England scene. His favorite country is the back country of lonely farms where a hard struggle for existence is mirrored in weatherbeaten farmhouses and sagging barns.

Benton Book Fund — Established on January 22, 1936, through bequest by will of Josiah H. Benton, who died February 6, 1917.

Income to be applied annually, without regard to amounts appropriated by the City of Boston for maintenance of the Boston Public Library in any year, as follows:

6/10 for the purchase of books, maps and other things in the nature of books and maps (1) which are of permanent value and benefit to the Library and (2) which are desirable for scholarly research and use.

4/10 to be paid over annually to the Rector of Trinity Church to be by him dispersed, either directly, or in his discretion, through charitable organizations or agencies, whether incorporated or unincorporated, in relieving the necessities of the poor. $1,171,026.70

Benton Building Fund — Established on January 22, 1936, through bequest by will of Josiah H. Benton, who died February 6, 1917.

To be held in trust until, with accumulations, total amount thereof is $2,000,000. Then to be applied "to the enlargement of the present central library building in Boston, or to the construction of another central library building in such part of the city as may then be most desirable for the accommodation of the people of said City; such new building to be constructed under the advice of the Librarian of the Library at that time in such manner as may be most desirable for efficient practical working of a library therein". Under Suffolk Probate Court Decree of May 7, 1945, application of $2,000,000 to said object may be deferred until such time as Library Trustees in their discretion determine it to be practicable and desirable or Court otherwise orders. $1,586,897.13

Benton Children's Fund, see Children's Fund.

Charles H. L. N. Bernard Fund — Established on March 28, 1930, through bequest by will of CHARLES H. L. N. BERNARD, who died June 4, 1928.

Caroline Curtis Fund — Established on March 13, 1947, through bequest of BEATRICE C. MAGUIRE, who died January 24, 1954.

Income to be applied to the purchase of children's books which shall be kept at the public library near Uphams Corner, Dorchester, so long as a public library is maintained near said Corner, with each book suitably marked as purchased from the Caroline Curtis Fund. $4,124.68

Abram E. Cutter Fund — Established on April 26, 1901, through bequest of ABRAM E. CUTTER, who died May 14, 1900.

Income to be applied to the purchase of books, and for repairs and binding. $4,270.00

John Deferrari Indenture of Trust Dated July 1, 1947.

To be held in trust by its Trustee in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument as THE JOHN DEFERRARI FOUNDATION until, with accumulations, total amount thereof is $2,000,000. Then the sum of $1,000,000 is to be used "for the construction of an additional wing (or addition of similar nature) to the present central library building now located in Copley Square in the City of Boston, or to a new central library building which might be constructed elsewhere, said addition or wing to be named "THE JOHN DEFERRARI WING," or, if the Trustees neither intend nor can within a reasonable period of time apply the sum for the purpose aforesaid, the net income is to be paid to the Trustees for use in whatever manner the Trustees shall see fit to carry on the work of said Library. If the sum of $1,000,000 is used for the above-mentioned construction purpose there is to be held in trust the remaining $1,000,000 until, with accumulations, the total amount again is $2,000,000. Then the net income is to be used "in whatever manner said Library Trustees shall see fit to carry on the work of said Public Library."
